

Family Earth Month Walks—Sponsored by the Westford Conservation Trust
April 2023

No registration is required for these walks.

Saturday April 1, 9-10:30 a.m. A Walk to the Stone Arch Bridge

This walk will be led by Lenny Palmer, and will run rain or shine. The trail is easy and mostly flat. It leads to the beautiful Stone Arch Bridge, a stone railroad bridge built over Stony Brook in 1872 of stone blocks without mortar. Meet Len at the Stone Arch Bridge sign and parking area on Coldspring Rd. Len's phone: 978-392-9876

Saturday, April 8, 9-10:30 a.m. A Walk on the Sassafras Trail

This walk will be led by Bill Harman, and will run rain or shine. This area is unusual for its many large boulders and beautiful glacial erratics. Trail is hilly and moderately strenuous. Hiking boots are recommended. Meet Bill at the parking area at the end of Sawmill Rd. Bill's cell phone: 603-533-0325

Saturday, April 15, 9-10:30 a.m. A Walk on Burns Hill

This walk will be led by Lenny Palmer, and will run rain or shine. The trail runs over three hills, is steep in places and moderately strenuous. The trail overlooks Vine Brook, and a large marsh which features an impressive heron rookery. Meet Len at the trailhead on Rome Drive. Len's phone: 978-392-9876

Saturday, April 22, 9-10:30 a.m. A Walk along Beaver Brook

This walk will be led by Rich Strazdas, and will run rain or shine. The trail offers a lovely and easy walk along Beaver Brook and around Round Island. The Beaver Brook area provides a great variety of wildlife to enjoy. You might want to bring binoculars! Meet Rich at the end of Buckingham Drive. Rich's cell phone: 508-340-8775 s

Saturday, April 29, 9-10:30 a.m. A Walk on the Peace Trail

This walk will be led by Gerry DiBello, and will run rain or shine. The trail offers a lovely and easy walk close to the center of town. The trail runs along the top of glacial eskers through wetlands that are abundant with wildlife in spring. Meet Gerry at the end of Drew Crossing. Gerry's phone: 978-692-9137
